Fellows affiliated to a Dutch university can apply for a Dutch University Grant. Personal stipends are only offered in case of loss of income, due to the fellowship. This applies to fellows without an affiliation and fellows from outside the Netherlands who take an unpaid leave. Personal stipends and the Dutch University Grant are standardized to E. 2.500 per month. More info: <https://nias.knaw.nl/what-we-offer/practical-matters/>

Would you need additional financial support?*

- Yes, I want to apply for additional funding
- No

Additional financial support is meant for fellows from low-income countries, who receive a full time salary below E.2.500 per month. The details of the additional support will be discussed with the fellow personally. More info: <https://nias.knaw.nl/what-we-offer/practical-matters/>

Dean of Faculty / Head of School*

Should your application be successful and you are affiliated to a Dutch university, your Dean/Head of School will be asked to sign the fellowship agreement in order to receive the Dutch University Grant.
