

NIAS WORKSHOP

Language and conceptualisation in healthcare provision

Date: 22-23 April, 2024

Venue: Conference room, NIAS

DAY I (9:30: 18:00) April 22nd, 2024

9:30-10:00: arrival and coffee

10:00-10:15: Opening by the Director of the Netherlands Institute for Advanced Study in the Humanities and Social Sciences, Jan Willem Duyvendak.

Moderator: Alan Cienki

Periods	Presenters	Affiliation	Title of presentations
10:15-11:30	Alexandra Perovic	NIAS; University College London, United Kingdom	Language difficulties in young offenders.
	María J. Arche	NIAS; University of Greenwich, UK
	Josep Quer	ICREA & Pompeu Fabra University, Spain
11:30-11:45	COFFEE BREAK
11:45-12:30	Marceline Sirri Bongnwi Ndongmanji	University of Maroua, Cameroon	Discourse analysis of herbal medicine in advertisement in Cameroon: focus on persuasive strategies
12:30-13:30	LUNCH
	Moderator: María J. Arche
13:30-14:10	Barbara De Kok	UC Louvain, Belgium and Antwerpen, Belgium	The construction of peer expert knowledge in patient fora on diabetes
14:10-14:50	Bregje de Kok	University of Amsterdam, Netherlands	A critical analysis of shared-decision making: Conversation analysis and hospital ethnography.
14:50-15:15	COFFEE BREAK
15:15-15:55	Coline Rondiat	UC Louvain, Belgium and Antwerpen, Belgium	“Without health, no freedom”: emerging meanings of health in the discourse of politicians and experts during the pandemic in Belgium
16:00-16:17	Keynote: Alexandra Perovic (University College London, United Kingdom) The importance of language in global health: the view from developmental disorders (autism, down syndrome, Williams syndrome)
17-18	DRINKS in the fellow house

DAY 2 (9:00-13:30) April 23rd, 2024
9:00-9.30: Arrival and coffee
Moderator: Anaïs Augé
9.30-10.10	Lozzi Martial Meutem Kamtchueng	NIAS & University of Maroua, Cameroon	Healthcare providers' experience of the practice of French/English-home language interpretation for official language illiterate patients in Far-North postcolonial multilingual Cameroon
10.10-10.50	Tchouape Ouamba Sophie	University of Maroua, Cameroon	On the conceptualisation of Covid 19 metaphors in Cameroon Anglophone Cameroon print media
10.50-11.15	COFFEE BREAK
Moderator: Josep Quer
11.15-11.55	Kayode Omoniyi Ogunfolabi	NIAS; Obafemi Awolowo University, Ile-Ife, Nigeria	Silencing the Goddesses: mental health and paradox of women's agency in selected Nigerian women's fiction
11.55-12.35	Anaïs Augé	UC Louvain, Belgium	National impacts of Covid 19 metaphors in French political discourse
12.35-13.30	Closing remarks and lunch		