

NIAS WORKSHOP

Language and conceptualisation in healthcare provision

Date: 22-23 April, 2024

Venue: Conference room, NIAS

9:30-10:00: arrival and coffee

10:00-10:15: Opening by the Director of the Netherlands Institute for Advanced Study in the Humanities and Social Sciences

DAY I (9:30: 18:00) April 22nd, 2024

Moderator: Alan Cienki

Periods	Presenters	Affiliation	Title of presentations
10:15-11:30	Alexandra Perovic	NIAS; University College London, United Kingdom	Language difficulties in young offenders.
	María J. Arche	NIAS; University of Greenwich, UK
	Josep Quer	ICREA & Pompeu Fabra University, Spain
11:30-11:45	COFFEE BREAK
11:45-12:30	Marceline Sirri Bongnwi Ndongmanji	University of Maroua, Cameroon	Discourse analysis of herbal medicine in advertisement in Cameroon: focus on persuasive strategies
12:30-13:30	LUNCH
Moderator: Lozzi Martial Meutem Kamtchueng
13:30-14:30	Keynote: Alexandra Perovic (University College London, United Kingdom) The importance of language in global health: the view from developmental disorders (autism, down syndrome, Williams syndrome)
Moderator: María J. Arche
14:30-15:10	Bregje de Kok	University of Amsterdam, Netherlands	A critical analysis of shared-decision making: Conversation analysis and hospital ethnography.
15:10-15:50	Kayode Omoniyi Ogunfolabi	NIAS; Obafemi Awolowo University, Ile-Ife, Nigeria	Silencing the Goddesses: mental health and paradox of women's agency in selected Nigerian women's fiction
15:50-16:05	COFFEE BREAK
16:05-16:45	Coline Rondiat	UC Louvain, Belgium and Antwerpen, Belgium	"Without health, no freedom": emerging meanings of health in the discourse of politicians and experts during the pandemic in Belgium

16:45-18:00	DRINKS in the fellow house
	9:00-9.30: Arrival and coffee DAY 2 (9:00-13:30) April 23rd, 2024
	Moderator: Anaïs Augé
9:30-10:10	Lozzi Martial Meutem Kamtchueng	NIAS & University of Maroua, Cameroon	Healthcare providers' experience of the practice of French/English-home language interpretation for official language illiterate patients in Far-North postcolonial multilingual Cameroon
10:10-10:50	Tchouape Ouamba Sophie	University of Maroua, Cameroon	On the conceptualisation of Covid 19 metaphors in Cameroon Anglophone Cameroon print media
10:50-11:15	COFFEE BREAK
	Moderator: Josep Quer
11:15-11:55	Anaïs Augé	UC Louvain, Belgium	National impacts of Covid 19 metaphors in French political discourse
11:55-12:35	Barbara De Kock	UC Louvain, Belgium	The construction of peer expert knowledge in patient fora on diabetes
12:35-13:30	CLOSING REMARKS and LUNCH		